

Instructions

To use my code, Symfony and composer are required. Please install them first.

<https://symfony.com/download>

<https://getcomposer.org/>

index.php contains 5 pages.

- Sign in page
- Register page
- Category list page (part of registration part)
- Shopping page
- Update category list page (the link is on a menu in shopping page)

What you need to do to use the application

- Login: username “user1” to “user3” and all password “123123” (Login page)
- Register: Create user account (Register page) username at least 4 digits and password at least 6 digits.
- Create category list page (Part of register page)

The summary of content each folder

Index.html - User interface

JS folder

- App.js - used to integrate the user interface and each php file
- function.js - includes the functions to control the web application

CSS folder

- Style.css

Image folder

Contains the graphical elements used in my user interface

Api.folder

- api.php - responsible for main routing, contains http response and output json
- db.php -used to manipulate database.
- se.php - used to manage session information and secure the app

The overall of the application

1. Login in or register the application
 - Login: confirm the account and call your own category list
 - Register: create an account and category list.
2. Products information that is in your list come out on your screen
3. Call product information via the menu tab
4. Update the category list